Fin. Com. Requests S.C. Cut of $50,000

The Arlington School Committee will reconsider several items in the School Budget at the monthly meeting Tuesday.

The sub-committee on schools of the Arlington Finance Committee asked the School Committee at a budget meeting held Tuesday night to reconsider cutting nearly $50,000 more from the School Budget.

Much of the discussion Tuesday night centered around a reconsideration to postpone a $19,120 request for renovations to the Arlington High school cafeteria. This amount would be used for tiling, $6,100; and new furniture, $13,020.

This item has been in the budget each time since 1963, and previously in 1958-1959 and 1960.

The Committee was also requested to reconsider the following budget items:

Black topping at the Crosby school, $6,500.

Remodeling of Sanitaries in Building B at the High school, $1,500.

Enlarging the teachers' dining room at the High school, $1,500.

Folding doors at the Junior High East cafeteria so that the area could be used for instructional purposes when not otherwise in use, $4,000.

New gym floor at the Junior High East—the old floor rises in damp weather—$5,200.

New wood shaper at the wood working shop at Arlington High, $375.

Electric Furnace at the Vocational school, $1,980.

Replacement of shaper at the Vocational school, $2,600.

Replacement of IBM Selectric typewriters ($2,400) asked to reconsider half.

Twenty circuit analysis kits at the Electric Shop, $11,000—asked to reconsider half.

A new switchboard has been installed in the Town Hall, replacing the old one pictured above. Picture above was taken Monday night in corridor adjacent to the Selectmen's office just before old equipment was removed. Original board was installed in 1953 in the basement of Town Hall and later moved to small room next to Selectmen's office.

Busing next year and additional building space were topics holding the interest of the audience of Parmenter school parents at a meeting held last week.

Preliminary Plans Completed Here

The Junior High School Building Committee has completed preliminary plans for additions and renovations to the Junior High East and Junior High West, and will shortly announce plans for a new junior high school on Summer st.

Articles have been filed in the Town Warrant seeking the transfer of land on Summer st. to the School Committee, and funds for building specifications for the three schools. Sums of $50,000 for the East, $60,000 for the West and $250,000 for the new school will be sought.

To provide new and retrofit old facilities, essential for new educational programs, similar plans have been designed for both schools. The most outstanding feature in each school will be the large library, serving as a study and resource center to promote and encourage individual study. Remedial reading rooms, plus enlarged administration and guidance suites are planned.

The number of science rooms have been increased and many of them will have laboratory facilities so that students may perform their own experiments. Interchangeable classrooms with movable partitions will allow for large group instruction and at the same time increase the number of regular size rooms. Art and music rooms will be added or improved. Both schools, for the first time, will have mechanical drawing rooms plus student activities rooms.

At the West, more space has been made available for the industrial arts shops. The cafeteria will be enlarged so that it can take care of the students in three eatings instead of four.

At the East, a more complete homemaking suite is planned.

The Town Meetings of 1968 charged the committee with bringing in preliminary plans for additions and/or renovations to Junior High West and Junior High East, plus securing preliminary plans for a third junior high school.

Werner Carlson, chairman, stated that the committee, along with the architects and the school administration have met regularly since last spring. Despite the magnitude of the assignment, the committee will have all the plans ready for the Town Meeting in March. He also stated that the sites and educational specifications have already been tentatively approved by the State School Building Assistance Commission.

Deadline

Registration of Voters in Arlington has been at a very low ebb, according to Town Clerk Mary Farrington.

Only nine persons registered at eight locations during special registration sessions between Jan. 20 and Jan. 29.

Four registered on Jan. 20, three registered Jan. 22, two registered Jan. 27 and no one registered Jan. 29. Two locations were open for residents to register on each of these dates.

Final day to register is Saturday, Feb. 8, from 12 noon until 10 p.m.

Reappointed

The Board of Selectmen Monday night approved the reappointment by Town Manager Donald R. Marquis of Ira M. Jones, 21 Grafton st., as a Trust Fund Commissioner, for a three year term, expiring Oct. 1, 1971.

No Meeting

The Arlington Board of Selectmen will not meet, Monday, Feb. 17, because of the celebration of that day as Washington's Birthday.

To Fill Term

Richard Keshian, 26 Lawrence lane, was named to the Zoning Board of Appeals by the Arlington Board of Selectmen, Monday night, to fill the unexpired term of Ralph Tuller. The term expires April 30, 1969.

Wants Better Service

Selectman Joseph P. Greeley has urged that the Selectmen contact the MBTA relative to bus service from Park circle in the Heights area to Cambridge.

At the same time Greeley has urged the MBTA to study the feasibility of providing bus service along Summer st. from Arlington Center to the Heights.

The latter suggestion came about in view of the proposed construction of an MDC rink along Summer st. and the need of transportation to and from the area.

At Greeley's suggestion the Board had previously contacted the MBTA in connection with commuters outside in the cold at the Heights Circle while buses were standing by.

Evidently, this situation has been cleared up.

However, Monday night, Greeley brought forth a complaint from commuters that the buses were picking up passengers at the Park Circle area, but then "laying over" in the area of Pleasant st.

The Executive Secretary of the Board of Selectmen will contact the MBTA on this matter.

Wins Junior Miss Pageant

Arlington's Junior Miss won the Massachusetts Junior Miss Pageant in Hyannis, Saturday, Monday night she, along with her parents visited the office of the Board of Selectmen. Pictured above at the Town Hall, l. to r.: Mrs. Stites; Selectman Chairman John Bileaf; the winner, Lynn Stites; Jaycee President Fred Pitcher; and Mr. Stites.

Miss Lynn Stites of Winchester who was selected Arlington Jaycees Junior Miss of 1969 traveled to Hyannis Feb. 1 for the Mass. Junior Miss Pageant and walked away with the title of Massachusetts Junior Miss for 1969.

Competing with sixteen girls from around the state, Lynn not only came in first on the overall scoring, but won first place in Scholastic Achievement and Poise and Appearance categories.

Lynn is a seventeen-year-old Senior at Winchester High school and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Byron M. Stites. She hopes to attend Stanford University next year and eventually become a lawyer.

Lynn received over $1,000 in scholarships as well as a camera and luggage set. She will travel to Mobile, Alabama in May of this year to represent Massachusetts in the United States Junior Miss Pageant. This pageant will be seen on national television on May 6.

"Voice of Hockey" Speaker

Bob Wilson, the "voice" of the Boston Bruins Hockey team on WHDH-radio, will be the guest speaker at the meeting of the Touchdown Club, Feb. 13, at 8 p.m. at Fantasia Restaurant.

A greater Boston resident, except for five years spent working in Louisiana, Bob now lives in Belmont. He was born in Stoneham and soon moved to Arlington, where he attended elementary schools.

Wilson attended Boston University and graduated from the Leland Powers School in Boston.

He served three years in the U. S. Air Force as a crew chief on jet aircraft.

After his discharge and attendance at college, Bob was offered an announcing job in Lafayette (Louisiana). There he served in a multitude of positions: program director; sales manager; radio-TV sports director; play-by-play on baseball, football, basketball, and boxing; and host for a golf show.

His next step in broadcasting was to Baton Rouge (Louisiana), where he was a disc jockey and also a sportscaster.

In 1957, Bob returned to Boston as a personality on one of Boston's larger radio stations.

A summer replacement position.

Jaycees Protest Taxes

The Arlington Jaycees have indicated their support of the latest method of protesting rising taxes. Concerned about the ever increasing tax burden on the taxpayers of the Commonwealth, the Jaycees are asking that individuals express their opinions by mailing "used" tea bags to their State Representatives and Senators.

President Fred Pitcher of the Arlington Jaycees who fostered the "used" tea bag protest stated that the used tea bags show that the "taxpayers of Massachusetts have been through the mill you can't get anything more out of them unless you want to rip open the skin." Hundreds of "used" tea bags have been received so far by the state legislators at the State House. The "used" tea bags should be dried out, placed one to an envelope marked "Hand Stamp", and mailed to the following Representatives and Senators for the Town of Arlington. Representative Eleanor Campobasso, State House, Boston, Mass. 02133. Representative Edward Dever, State House, Boston, Mass. 02133. Representative Gregory Khachadorian, State House, Boston, Mass. 02133. Representative William Pickett, State House, Boston, Mass. 02133. Senator Philip Pellegri, State House, Boston, Mass. 02133.

The Jaycees are also planning a personal delivery of many tea bags at 12 Noon, Feb. 13, to the State House.

Used tea bags for this delivery may be sent to Taxpayers Tea Bag Protest, P.O. Box 186, Arlington, Mass. 02174.

Discuss Rt. 2 Alternates

Arlington officials and officials of Somerville and Cambridge met with the State Dept. of Public Works, and other state authorities at a preliminary briefing Friday on three alternate plans in connection with the extension of Rt. 2 from Lake st. to the traffic circle in Cambridge.

Chairman of the Board of Selectmen John Bileaf told this paper that the local Board will be called on by the State Dept. of Public Works to determine which of the three plans it favors.

The two larger parcels of land adjacent to the present Rt. 2 location which might be affected by the relocation include one sector owned by Star Market, and the Thordike st. playground.

According to Bileaf, plans indicate that two or three houses might be taken in the Magnolia and Thordike st. section.

The Chairman of the Board also indicated that these preliminary plans are not necessarily binding.

Residents Invited to Meeting

Town Meeting members to pass them, although those six will not cost the Town a cent.

Economically, two allow for reimbursement by Federal or State governments, up to 75% of their initial cost.

Get Down To Business

Let's take them one by one: Article 92: Green's Hill. Last year, Mr. and Mrs. James C. Green gave to the Town a C-shaped area around their house on Brattle st., to be used for conservation purposes. This article enables the Town to accept that gift.

Articles 93 to 96: Tax Title Land. Four of the Articles can be listed under this heading—tax title land. They refer to pieces of land, almost all of them small or irregular in size, which would be transferred by the Town to the custody of the Town's Conservation Commission.

Article 97: Land Adjacent to Wellington Park. A "linear park" along Mill Brook is a major goal of Arlington's long-range conservation plan and the acquisition of parcels of Brook and its banks is important to that plan. One such parcel, still in its natural state, lies adjacent to Wellington Park.

Article 98: Edison Land. As you stand on Mystic st., looking upstream to the Flume, Mill Brook and both its banks belong to the Boston Edison Company. The Conservation Commission hopes to create a small park along Mill Brook between Mystic st. and the Flume. Members of the Arlington Garden Club have said that their Club will landscape the area.

Article 99: Archdiocesan Land. The small park described above would possibly include a strip of land and a portion of the Brook presently owned by the Archdiocese of Boston. Included in this area is the Flume and the site of Captain Cook's Mill—the birthplace of Arlington.

Article 100: Budget. The Commission holds down its budget by spending its funds mainly for appraisal, surveying and legal fees. There is almost no overhead.

Article 101: Hydrology Survey. For years, Arlington turned its back to Mill Brook because of floods. This study would be the first step toward flood control along the Mill Brook Valley. Work done as a result of such a study could be 50% reimbursable by the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

A sizable list of articles from a small, recently-organized Town body? Yes, but the Conservation Commission has a lot of work to do and not much time in which to do it. Time to get down to business.

Editorials

Dangers of Skating

More than once each year there appear stories in this paper and in others about the dangers inherent in ice skating.

We are certain that many of the residents, fathers and mothers, read these stories with interest and with the thought in their minds that such situations always happen to the other family or the child of someone else.

But, unfortunately, this is not the case. Very unfortunately, too many times, it happens to them.

Not a week goes by during the period from early December through March without a death by drowning somewhere in the area.

It is felt that possibly January and February are even worse months for the dangers of thin ice than the months of December and March.

During the latter two months, the ice generally is not always solid enough—and parents and children alike realize this fact and consequently are more cautious of where they skate.

However, during the months of January and February, the ice is generally expected to be solid and thus safe most of the time.

Unfortunately, this is not always true because of unknown springs underwater and thaws.

Just because the weather has been cold for four or five days, does not mean that the ice is perfectly safe.

One rainy day or one warm day can weaken some ice surfaces just enough to cause problems.

Don't let your youngster become involved in one of these problems.

Report $28,294,742 Deficit

The Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority has reported a deficit of $28,294,742 for the 13-month fiscal period, October 1, 1967, through October 31, 1968.

The figure is contained in the Authority's fourth annual report filed today with the office of Governor Francis W. Sargent, the Authority's Advisory Board and the General Court. The report was signed by the Board of Directors, Judge Charles C. Cabot, Chairman, William J. Fitzgerald, Robert P. Springer, Forrest I. Neal, Jr., and Richard D. Buck.

General Manager Leo J. Cusick pointed out that the cost of service is $1,125,065 less than the earlier projection as a result of increases in state aid, interest on investments, and, surprisingly, passenger riding which was up two percent.

"Every effort was made—and is still being made—to effect economies wherever possible," the General Manager said. "Yet, the deficit was $3,818,606 higher than for the prior 13-month period. This was because of the acquisition of the Eastern Mass. St. Ry. Co. last March 30, higher wage costs in accordance with the Authority's collective bargaining agreements, and higher costs of materials as a result of inflation."

Total Income $55,259,525
The Authority reported total income for the 1968 fiscal period of $55,259,525.98. Total expenses, including fixed charges, amounted to $97,485,629.10 of which $64,130,392.03 (about 66 percent) was for wages and fringe benefits.

As required by the 1964 Mass. Transportation Act, the annual report contains a description of the organization of the Authority, its recommendations for legislation, and the comprehensive program for mass transportation (Master Plan) as most recently revised.

Progress highlights listed in the report included:

—The contract award for the South Cove Tunnel, marking the start of the Authority's third rapid transit extension.

—Continued construction of the South Shore and Haymarket-North extensions.

—Placing the order for 76 modern, air-conditioned rapid transit cars for the South Shore line.

—Completion of the modernization of three existing rapid transit stations and the start of modernization of four others.

—Acquisition of the Eastern Massachusetts St. Ry. Co. and its personnel.

—Completion of comprehensive transportation planning requirements of the Federal Urban Mass Transportation Act, thus enabling the Authority to apply for two-thirds grants on future projects and to receive the 16-2/3 percent withheld on prior approved projects.

—Initiation of the revision of the 1966 Master Plan as revised in February 1968.

—An Honor Award "for excellence in comprehensive design for system development" from the U. S. Department of Housing and Urban Development.

Withdraws

John F. Mahoney, 75 Hillside ave., this week withdrew as a candidate for the office of Board of Assessors, according to Town Clerk Mary Farrington.

An Indianapolis veteran received the seven millionth G.I. home loan in December 1968.

With Determined Strides

The Boy Scout movement is moving with determined strides to keep up with the times and to serve more boys in the four Musket District communities of Arlington, Stoneham, Winchester and Woburn. What is happening in Scouting and progress already made will be apparent during several major events of Boy Scout Week, Feb. 7 through 13.

Feb. 8, the public is invited to the Musket District "World of Scouting" show at the Woburn Armory where more than 30 units of Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts and Explorers from the four communities will demonstrate Scouting in action. The show is open from noon to 4 p.m.

Feb. 9, boys and leaders of all faiths representing Scouting units of the four towns will conduct a Scout re-dedication religious service at the Stoneham Town Hall Auditorium. The public is invited to participate. All Scouts and their adult leaders will be in full uniform. Massed flags of units present will be displayed during the 3 p.m. service.

Also during Boy Scout Week, "Fireside Chats" will be held with volunteer Scouters in each of the towns to explore ways of improving Scouting's financial ability to expand and provide more effective programs serving more boys.

Nolan T. Jones of Winchester, Chairman of the Musket District Committee, observes: "Scouting in our communities is moving into an exciting era in which we are putting into action an ambitious and important program in tune with the times, with objectives that will enable our more than 1,100 volunteer leaders to deliver a far more valuable Scout experience than in the past and to make it available to many more boys than the 2,780 we are now serving."

2,780 in Scout Age

Chairman Jones continues, "Scouting has been concerned about attitudes for the past 60 years—attitudes toward one's self, one's neighbor, the community, the Nation and God, as well as toward property, authority and the Nation's resources. We know we must improve our efforts—considerably, now. We are developing plans to strengthen those attitudes and to expand the Scouting experience to meet the growing and desperate needs of today's youth.

"This is a national effort of the Boy Scouts of America; it reaches into every community in the country. Our slogan reflects well the challenge, 'Today's Boypower for Tomorrow's Manpower.' Adults in Scouting are recognizing more than ever the substantial, important influences we can provide to help families and our community institutions prepare new generations of young men with the skills and confidence they will need before they become adult citizens. As in the past 60 years, our new program is for all boys—for as many as want it."

Mr. Jones notes that sweeping changes already have been made in the Cub Scout program for boys 8 to 10 years old, with the result that more of them want to move into the Scout and Explorer programs for older boys. The new Cub Webelos program, especially, is putting the pinch on the need for more and large Boy Scout Troops and Explorer Posts.

Today there are 2,780 boys between the ages of 8 and 13 in the 62 Scout units of Arlington, Stoneham, Winchester and Woburn; 28 are Cub Packs, 31 Boy Scout Troops and three Explorer Posts. The Musket District goal for years just ahead is to provide three Boy Scout Troops for every two Cub Scout Packs, and to have 10 percent of total boy membership in Explorer Scouting for older boys. This program is well under way, headed by Chris Gallacher of Arlington, Chairman of Musket District Organization and Extension.

New Scout Movement

A number of new District Boy Scout Troops have been organized in recent months and the committee is proceeding with development of others. In Arlington, members of the Trinity Baptist Church have organized and are sponsoring the new Troop 302, Charles Nason, a veteran Scouter in the community, is Scoutmaster; William D. Vale, Institutional Representative; Francis E. Morgan, Committee Chairman.

St. Barbara's Church in Woburn is sponsoring the new Troop 500 with Arthur McCann as Scoutmaster, Ira D. Snow, Committee Chairman, and John J. Phalon, Jr., Institutional Representative. Scout Troop 517 in Woburn was organized under sponsorship of the Greek Orthodox Church of Annunciation. Paul Apostolou of Winchester is Scoutmaster; Christie Varoutsos, Committee Chairman, and at the time of the charter, Rev. Evangelos Georgiadis was Institutional Representative.

The Winchester Lodge of Elks now sponsors the new Troop 508 in Winchester. Guy Mafera, Exalted Ruler, announced the following appointments: Royce A. Bailey, Institutional Representative; Archibald J. MacDonald, Jr., Committee Chairman; Francis A. Lawton, who has been active as Cubmaster of Pack 508, is serving as Scoutmaster, assisted by William Oravetz and Edward Jones.

With more organized units come greater need for more trained volunteer Scout unit leaders, den mothers and committeemen. Musket District has developed an outstanding leadership training program that is preparing leaders now for the future. Training is headed by Thomas Marsh of Stoneham, who comments: "No Scouting experience is necessary for an adult to pitch in and help with his son's unit. But the time is coming when formal training is going to be very important for leaders of a Pack, Troop or Post. They have important responsibilities in carrying out the Scout program for the boys. When a leader is prepared to do it well, everyone associated with the unit benefits."

Tentative Agenda

Consideration of Warrant Articles submitted by School Survey Committee and articles for additions to Farmington and Peirce schools.

Policy for determining eligibility for free and reduced price meals required by Office of School Lunch programs.

Request for waiver of rental fee for Lowe Auditorium by Arlington Council of Churches, Arlington Civil Rights Committee and others for film and discussion of drugs, Feb. 24, 8-10:30 p.m.

Request by Arlington News Company to recruit news boys in school.

Request of doctoral student to conduct experimental project with third graders.

Request for hearing by Arlington Chapter, Greater Boston Association for Retarded Children.

A request for 30-desk-chair units at the Bishop school, $1,140. The School Committee was asked to wait until after inventory.

The sub-committee also requested that the schools reduce the budget by $115,000 with anticipated receipts received under Public Law 874. The Committee felt that only $100,000 could be made available at this point.

sition opened up at WHDH in the spring of 1962 and Wilson won the audition. He became a permanent member of the staff in the fall of that same year.

During his years at WHDH, Bob has been a reporter at political conventions, man-on-the-street interviewer, but his main love has always been sports. Just before becoming the "voice" of the Bruins, he had three weekend 10-minute sports shows on WHDH-TV that were highly received.

Since the 1964-1965 season, Bob Wilson has been "color man" for the Boston Bruins of the National Hockey League broadcasts on WHDH-Radio. On several occasions, he was called upon to do play-by-play. His fine handling of these play-by-play broadcasts led to his being chosen "voice" during the 1967-1968 season.

Bob Wilson, an avid golf player, lives near a local golf club with his wife Nancy and their three children: Linda (born July 4, 1950), William (January 7, 1953), and Patti-Ann (June 1, 1956).

THE Observer

What now?
Fifteen candidates will do battle when Election Time rolls around, March 1.
Hope you folks haven't forgotten that Election still is held on a Saturday in Arlington.

Offices on six boards will be contested.
There will be competition in three of these. None in the other three.

Town Clerk Mary Farrington has no competition as she seeks re-election after winning a one year term a year ago—and Mary should expect none in the future.

Like Anne Mahon before her, after fighting off all the opposition the first time around, she now has no one willing to compete.

Town Treasurer Francis Coughlin is in the "same boat". No one wants to run against the incumbent in this office, and no one has for how many years?

Housing Candidate incumbent John Hogan seeks the five year post, and although he has competition and possibly a great deal of it, he is not in the position that existed a year ago when no less than four candidates "did battle" for the same post.

Paul Aiken is the opposition here and could provide plenty of it.

John Byrne, incumbent member of the Board of Assessors faced competition until John Mahoney withdrew, Monday.

Mary K. Carter, Arthur Coughlin and Claire O'Neil seek re-election to the School Committee with Eugene J. Kirby and Robert Murray seeking to unseat two of the three.

Kirby and Murray are both in the first political venture for major office, and evidently have strong support in their own quarters, but here and now, the incumbents would have to receive the Observer's nod.

The Selectman contest is a "poser" at this point with incumbents Joseph Greeley, and Horace Homer facing stiff opposition from former Selectman John Bullock, Christopher Cammarata and Chester O'Brien.

More on this one as the view becomes clearer.

To the Editor:

We would like to thank the men of the Arlington Police Department who came to help on the morning of January 21 when our mother was suddenly taken ill. Our call for help was answered immediately.

There is no substitute for experience and the men who assisted us certainly knew how to manage a distraught family in a difficult situation. For your efficiency and compassion, we are deeply grateful. Please accept the sincere thanks of the family of—

The Arlington High basketball team defeated Newton South 65-52 Friday night at the local gym, as four of Coach Hill's boys were in double figures.

The Red and Gray team increased its lead to 13 points in the second period and were ahead at half-time 34-21. It looked as if the local basketball team was going to run up a big score when they scored 19 points early in the third period and had a 20 point spread. The Newton team had their most points of any periods as they dropped in 19 points in the final period.

Capt. Dave O'Leary was the game's top scorer with 18; Barry Yunis was next with 13; Cuccio and Carvello had 10. The other points were scored by Nigro, 3; Lewko, 2; and Kostopoulou, 9.

A 21-point third period gave the locals a single point lead going into the final period.

Sophomore Jimmy Lyons was the game's high scorer with 15 baskets from the floor and 8 from the foul line. He was the only local boy in double figures.

The wicked Wilson Pickett socks some soul to you, via his new LP titled after, and including his smash 'hit' of "Hey Jude." His fine effort also has, "Save Me," "Toe Hold" and "Night Owl" to rock you, plus the ballad sound of "Back In Your Arms." Another recent Pickett success opens two, "A Man and a Half," also, "Born to Be Wild" and two ballads, "Search Your Heart" and "People Make the World." Pickett's a groove.

Retrospective: The Best of the Buffalo Springfield

Referred to as one of the most creative groups of the sixties, the Springfield members were all talented writers, which was one of the reasons the group split up, as they all went their own way. All the selections for this album were written by the group. Tracks as their golden sound of, "For What It's Worth," also, "Sit Down I Think I Love You," "Bluebird" and the great sound of "On the Way Home." Flip side cuts are, "Broken Arrow," "Rock and Roll Woman," "Go and Say Goodbye" and "Expecting to Fly." A good song to end a good album.

COLUMBIA

Charlie Byrd—The Great Byrd

Charlie Byrd flies high with this fine album of eleven distinctive sounds. The multi-faceted virtuoso performs for you his brand-new thing on tracks as, "Wichita Lineman," "For Once In My Life," "Those Were the Days," "Happy Together" and "Hey Jude." More Byrd on two with, "Abraham, Martin and John," "I'll Never Fall In Love Again," "Lullaby" from "Rosemary's Baby" and "Who Is Gonna Love Me." The fantastic Byrd with a 'stroke of genius.'

The Adventures of

Bloomfield & Kooper

Can you dig an hour-and-a-half of free, soaring music? If the answer is yes, then dig this out-of-sight two record set recorded live at the Fillmore Auditorium in San Francisco. On the first LP Mike Bloomfield makes an opening speech, and Al Kooper does likewise on the second LP. Treat your ears to cuts as, "The 50th Street Bridge Song," "I Wonder Who," "The Weight" and "Green Onions" two fine instrumentals, plus, "Mary Ann" and "That's All Right" to fill record one. Record two has "Sonny Boy Williamson" a tribute to this late great artist, "Dear Mr. Fantasy," "Don't Throw Your Love On Me So Strong" a blues-inclined tune, and the finale written by Mike and Al entitled "Refugee." They've created another super-session.

MERCURY

Spanky & Our Gang—Anything You Choose

Spanky and the Gang, with another great album. Opening with their current chart-climbing single, "Anything You Choose," they follow with two other recent successes, "Yesterday's Rain" and "Give a Damn," along with "And She's Mine." Along with producing and arranging this entire album, The McCoy's also wrote many of the selections included. Tracks of note are, "Human Ball Blues" a fine instrumental, "Epilogue," Dylan's "All Over You" and "Daybreak" completes the first side. The Human Ball continues to roll on side two with, "It Really Doesn't Matter," "Love Don't Stop" and they say it all with T. Bone Walker's tune "Stormy Monday Blues," six minutes of goodness plus. The McCoy's do it again with a fine album.

That's just the beginning, as side two has more with, "From Both Sides Now," "Abraham, Martin and John," "I Love How You Love Me" and the finale "Promises, Promises." Al Hirt is 'now.'

Nina Simone and Piano!

One of the most emotional songstresses in the world today, Nina Simone is dedicated to turning her listeners 'on.' She did just that at the recent Boston Globe Jazz Festival, now she does it again on her great album. Dig as she accompanies herself on piano to tunes, "Seems I'm Never Tired Lovin' You," "I Think It's Going to Rain Today," "Everyone's Gone to the Moon" and a poem written by black poet, Paul Lawrence Dunbar entitled "Compensation." Two has, "Who Am I," "The Human Touch" and "I Get Along Without You Very Well." Nina Simone, her every song an experience.

KAPP

The Good Rats

Comprising the group are, John Perry, lead guitar; Pete Swettenham, rhythm guitar; Geoff Swettenham, drums, and George Alexander on bass guitar. George wrote nine of the twelve selections included. Cuts of note are, "Another Game," "Yesterday's Sunshine," "Yes" and "Lullaby." About Photo Licenses

Registry of Motor Vehicles officials today explained in simple terms how the new statute on photo licenses will operate.

Renewal Licenses

A form will be sent to each licensee by mail from the Registry of Motor Vehicles prior to the expiration date of present license. The fee will be noted on the renewal application form.

The form must be filled out with all questions answered and signed in ink by the applicant. It must then be taken in person by the licensee to a Registry office.

An examiner will inspect the application and if it is in order, he will conduct an eye test.

If the applicant passes the

The applicant's photo will then be taken and will appear on the license which will be presented to him on the spot.

The whole renewal process will require about five minutes at the Registry counter.

NOTE: Licensees are advised not to make any alterations in the printed information on the face of the application they receive in the mail. Lucky You—Tax Refund Due!

Working on your Federal income tax?

Then look ahead to Line 25. It gives you a choice welcomed annually by millions of taxpayers.

Line 25 of Form 1040 (or line 11 on the 1040A) asks you to check whether you want a cash refund, or U.S. Savings Bonds to make the same cash last longer and go farther.

It's the easiest thrift decision you'll ever make.

It's the way to hang onto your refund until a time when you'll need it more... and make it grow meanwhile at a guaranteed rate of 4.25% when held to maturity. There is nothing safer or surer—and even if your Bonds are lost or stolen they'll be replaced for you.

Leave your tax refund in Uncle Sam's pocket this year, with his promise to pay you a little over four dollars for every three later on. It takes money to build a better America. That's why so many of us file Form 1040... and take refunds in Savings Bonds.
